Your, The Supply Chain Partner. With Your needs in mind. For all your needs.
For all types of needs of all types of clients like You.

Becoming a partner for supply chain of clients is not an easy task. Precisely we know that because we have done each aspect of supply chains separately or in an integrated manner for a lot of clients including those SC activities which very few service providers do, plan & execute.

We are not writing more about normal Supplychain solutions which many others are providing. We also provide the same services with equal elan. Other than routine SCM solutions available in abundance, we offer lot of niche and on demand services. Talk to us to find out more. Read on to know more.

Market Entry Solutions:

Are you contemplating entering the market of UAE (selectively or entirely) for trading and distributing your products? You need not move an inch from wherever you are now or your business is now. Logperis SC comes in as your trusted partner for complete and comprehensive solutions – be it regulatory, cross border freight, inspections, warehousing & movement, deliveries, sales returns, reverse logistics, payments - all such B2B / B2C activities can be entrusted to Logperis SC.

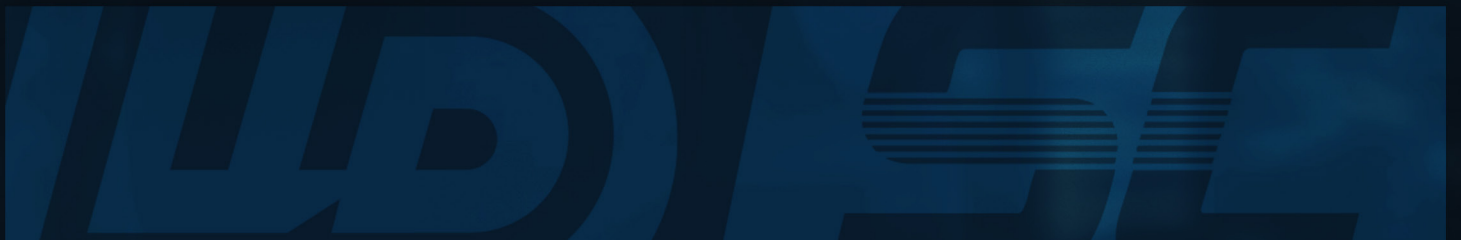

We co-ordinate and manage near-perfect execution right from the pre-planning phase till closing the loop with payment collection & repatriation. Be assured, your brand equity, your cash, your products all are in safe hands with Logperis SC.

This doubles up as a very cost-effective solution, even if in case, if you are planning for a deferred full-fledged entry into UAE Market, so that you would get the real pulse of UAE market without risking huge efforts, time, investment & resources.

Once you have enough insights about market, clients, product range - you are free to start afresh your selves, since our mutually beneficial terms of engagement ensures a smooth exit for your business with ample lead time to be on your own feet.

Feet on the Ground Solutions:

Does Your organization offer vending solutions? For Food or for any kind of product? Is maintaining those in-store equipment giving you sleepless nights? Are those counter managers troubling you with incessant calls regarding clarifications, repair, etc?

Is there a struggle to manage refills, spares, consumables – movement of these?

For all similar requirements Logperis SC has bespoke, scalable, sustainable solutions with our in-house trained professionals who are equipped with training directly from various popular and established OEM's

We also provide and manage support services for marketing collateral mgmt, new store openings (NSO), warranty mgmt., contract mgmt. etc – all these tasks always ask for nuanced approach to beat your competition with higher precision and cost effectiveness, faster time-to-market. You provide us with specifications and delivery plans or NSO date and Bill of Materials. Period. You sit back and enjoy the clockwork neatness with which we complete those tasks on-time, every time with proper visibility and profound cost-effectiveness.

You plan for the market share expansion; we are with you to support invisibly, so that your business shall shine and your team can focus more on the core requirements and improve profitability.

We are committed to provide you with consistency, cost-effectiveness.

Supply, Set Up & Return Services:

Demonstration, Trial Runs, Event/Exhibition participation (Trade Fairs), providing user experience to prospects in controlled atmosphere – these are all now inseparable part of business development and customer or prospects engagement. Customer Success managers often find it difficult to plan such events, mainly because they don't have an experienced partner to rely on to execute such programs.

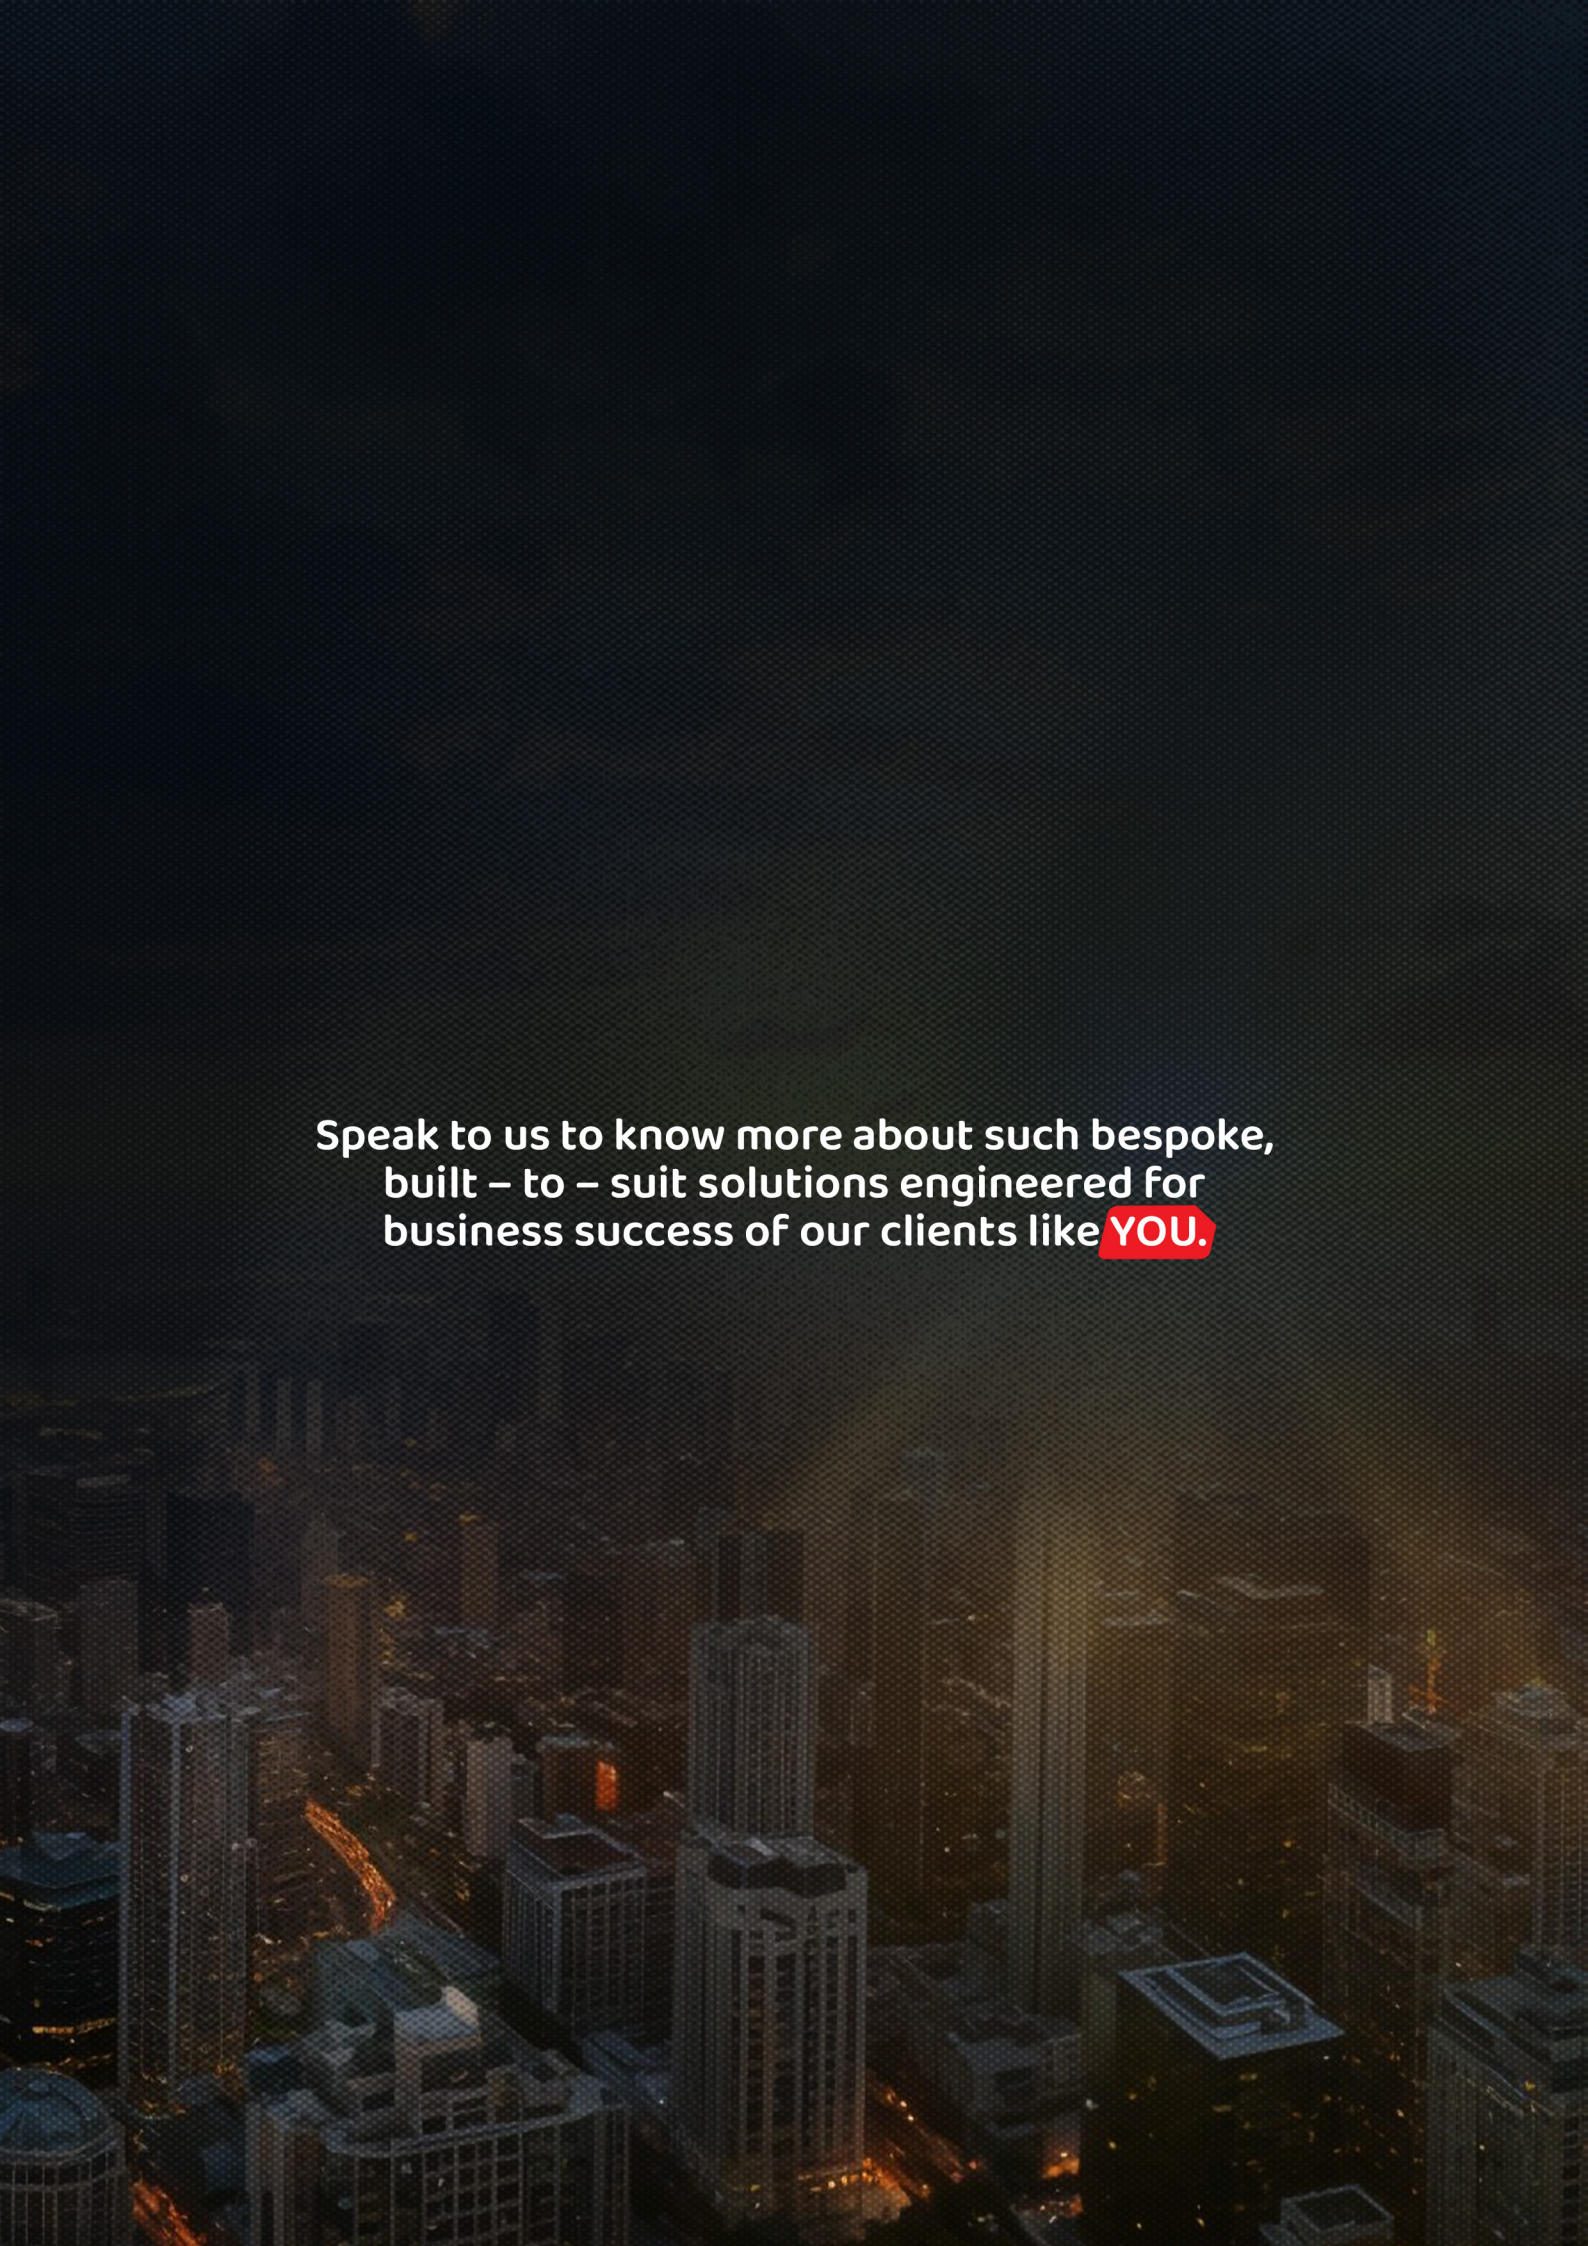

The wait is over – Logperis SC is here. Now, you can plan for celebrating the repeated successes, since Logperis SC always thinks and plans with the customer success in focus.

Dubai (UAE) is one of the markets which cannot be afforded to be missed by global or regional business players. For all such ad-hoc, critical-to-new-business requirements, with Logperis SC on your side, you need not worry about how to execute, how to send, how to set up, how to prototype, how to dismantle, how to return to a different hub or where to temporarily store these goods for next event participation in the queue.

Logperis SC is experienced in handling and re-handling these ad-hoc, globe-trotting event participation or demonstration equipment on an on-demand basis. Storing, Moving, registering (for events in case of Healthcare, MedTech, FoodTech etc.), import & export, customs clearances et al all are taken care of without any hassle, with proper paperwork, visibility and tracking, even if these events need a reasonably high percentage of local purchase of goods and services to complete the participation or user experience or demonstration, in style, we can arrange for the same for the show to go on.
